

The mission of Lehigh's Center for Innovation in Teaching and Learning (CITL) is to foster excellence and innovation in teaching, learning, and research by providing faculty and students with development opportunities, teaching tools, course development guidance, classroom and instructional support, and consultation services.

FALL 2018 WORKSHOPS

Visit citl.lehigh.edu/events for information and to register

Inclusive Teaching

Student Voices:
Conversations on the Diversity of Student Experiences at Lehigh
(3 sessions per semester)

Effective Writing Assignments

- Designing Writing Assignments
- Crafting Research Assignments
- Preventing Plagiarism

Problem-Based Learning

- PBL Projects That Work
- Grading Group Work and Assessing PBL Projects

Digital Scholarship and Instructional Technology

- WordPress
- Pocket Video Production
- Creating 360 Virtual Tours
- Preservation and Storage

Teacher Development Program for Graduate Students

Save the date!

CITL Open House, August 22, 2018

Call for CITL Faculty Fellowships & Course Development Grants, October 1, 2018

CITL Winter Workshop, January 9, 2019

Inclusive Teaching Workshop, January 10-11, 2019

Symposium on Teaching and Learning, April 10-11, 2019

High Performance Computing for Research and Student Learning

Reacting to the Past: Using Simulations and Role Play to Promote Deep Learning

Teaching Online

- Faculty reflections on Online courses taught in Summer 2018
- Planning for Summer 2019

Online Resources

- Getting Started Teaching at Lehigh
- Course Design, Syllabus Planning, & Syllabus Template
- Inclusive Teaching
- Academic Integrity Resources
- Active Learning Strategies
- Early-semester Feedback Forms
- Effective Assignments & Effective, Efficient Grading
- Making Sense of Student Evaluations
- Instructional Technology

Consultation Services

- General Teaching and Learning Topics
- Integrating Writing, Research, or Inquiry in your Course
- Active Learning, Inclusive Teaching, Peer-to-Peer, Experiential, and Project-Based Learning
- Visualization, Virtual Reality, Augmented Reality
- Classroom Visit and Feedback
- Digital Scholarship, Film, and Multimedia Projects
- Enhancing Teaching using Digital Tools or Instructional Video
- Preparing to Teach a Fully Online Course
- Digital Texts or Open Access
- Research Computing
- Classroom Technology